

Farmington Times AND HERALD.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY THE Farmington Times Printing Co.

THOS. H. STAM., PHILIP S. COLE,
PRESIDENT. VICE PRESIDENT.

R. A. SWINK, SECY. & TREAS.

$1.00 A Year in Advance.

THEO. D. FISHER, EDITOR
AND BUSINESS MANAGER.

MELBOURNE SMITH, ASSISTANT EDITOR AND SOLICITOR.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1902.

Democratic Ticket.

Representative Thirteenth District:
EDWARD RODD.

State Senator Twenty-sixth District:
JOHN L. BRADLEY.

COUNTY TICKET.
Representative JOSEPH DUNKLIN.

Presiding Judge County Court: C. T. TULLOCH.

Associate Judge First District: S. C. SPERRETT.

Associate Judge Second District: JOHN M. WOOD.

Circuit Clerk and Recorder: J. C. WILLIAMS.

County Clerk: J. A. LAWRENCE.

Collector: FRANK BUCHHAGEN.

Prosecuting Attorney: B. H. HUBBELL.

Treasurer: J. H. HENSELY.

Probate Judge: J. S. GROSSM.

Sheriff: H. M. MURPHY.

Public Administrator: CHAS. M. WILKINSON.

DR. A. L. EVANS.

Mr. I. L. Page of the Bonne Terre Star has been appointed one of a committee of three to arrange for a general meeting of Democratic editors on September 15th. The other members of the committee are Mr. Jacks of the Montgomery Standard and Mr. Nolen.

President Roosevelt doesn't have a very exalted opinion of the Southern brand of Republicanism. He appears to regard it as a frantic squabble for the loves and fishes dished out by the National Administration, with no other purpose, to say nothing of principle and decency, in view.

There will be a Congressman Rainey in the next Congress, but he will not half from the Thirteenth Missouri district; Mr. Hobbs will continue to represent this district. But the Twentieth Illinois District Democrats have nominated Henry F. Rainey, and in that district the Democratic nomination is equivalent to an election.

Russell Sage, the great octogenarian capitalist and largest individual capitalist in the country, says "combinations of all great industries are a menace to the government; that they will result in a terrible panic and eventually bring about financial ruin such as was never dreamed of. He says it is better to have the great industry divided among several individuals than combined in one great corporation."

Mr. J. Piermont Morgan is promising a gigantic ocean shipping monopoly, and the Republican party is promoting a gigantic ocean shipping subsidy, which, if the shipping subsidy bill is passed by our Republican Congress, will rob the people of millions annually to give to Mr. Morgan's monopoly. Do the people want to be taxed and robbed for this purpose? The way to prevent it is to displace the Republican Congress.

The Republican josh that it took $44,000,000 to reduce the State debt from $21,000,000 to $5,000,000 is clearly explained in Gov. Dickey's Holt speech. Of course there was interest to pay as well as principal, besides some other small expenses necessarily attaching to the business transactions of making payments; and it only takes a few years for the interest on a note or bond to amount to as much as the principal. Gov. Dickey pertinently asks why it would not be just as reasonable for Democrats to ask Republicans why the national Government had used during the same period $3,800,000,000 to reduce the public debt from $2,000,000,000 to $531,000,000. Anybody who has ever had to pay interest on a note for ten or fifteen years knows without being told that he has paid out more than double the original amount borrowed.

The county Democratic nominees should, individually and collectively, make as earnest a canvass of the county for the success of the ticket as they made for the nominations before the primary. They should not be satisfied with a simple election. They are now the standard bearers of the county party organization, and as such ought to labor to increase the party's majority. To do this they must work, each candidate making a personal canvass and seeing as many voters as possible, and not only urge his own cause, but that of every man on the ticket. If a special fight is made on any single nominee, the other nominees must see that his claims are properly urged by each of them. It is a duty that they owe the party for their nominations to work, and work industriously and intelligently, for the whole ticket. And in this work they should have the earnest and hearty support of every Democrat in the county. Let us get out the full party vote and roll up one of the old-time Democratic majorities in this county.

"The state school fund certificates are just as much of a sacred obligation as any other debt." —Farmington Times.

Look out there, Bro. Fisher, look out there! You're out o' line. You should read up on the "Treaty of 1803" and the "Treaty of 1820" which constitutes the people of Missouri on their magnificent school fund, and now you come along and tell us that it is a "sacred obligation." That platform points out that Missouri has the largest school fund of any state in the Union, and now you fall down away on another string, and speak that "there is no such thing as a 'sacred obligation as any other debt,'" draw up there, and not your horn for the platform. You can't earn your share in the "apparition" at "them" ticks—Scott County kicker.

No, THE TIMES is not out of line with the Democratic platform. But Kickers must kick, even if they have to kick at a void. The State school and seminary funds were originally invested in United States bonds, or the greater part was. These bonds were sold at a handsome premium and the principal and premium, except the expenses incurred in the transaction, were invested in State bonds. By act of the General Assembly it was decided to invest these funds in non-negotiable State Certificates of Indebtedness, to take the place of the negotiable State bonds in which they were then invested, and to cancel and destroy the negotiable State bonds. The State has paid the interest on these school fund certificates regularly, just as it would have done on the bonds for which they stand if the transfer had not been made and the bonds had not been cancelled.

These are the plain facts, plainly and briefly stated, of the investment of the State school funds, and the platform of the party has ever denied that the State school certificates are a State obligation or debt. They simply take the place of the cancelled bonds added to, just as if they had been re-funding bonds, except that they were made non-transferable and non-negotiable.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

The doctors of Poplar Bluff are already making arrangements to entertain the Southeast Medical Association this fall.

St. Francois County Murderer Caught.

Wednesday, Aug. 20th, Constable Chandler received a telegram from the Chief of Police at San Francisco asking if he wanted Geo. Kirkpatrick for murder. Constable Chandler at once wired that he wanted Kirkpatrick and telegraphed the address of Louis Marchand, who is now in San Francisco, to have Kirkpatrick identified.

Thursday morning Constable Chandler received a telegram from the Chief that Kirkpatrick was identified and for him to come on with requisition papers. Sheriff Higley was communicated with and he left Friday morning with the proper papers and will likely return the latter part of the week with Kirkpatrick. Our readers will remember that Kirkpatrick killed Chas. G. Carney in a room in the rear of Wilson's saloon on Sunday, January 27, 1901, and he has ever since been hiding from officers.

Constable Chandler has been trying to get track of him and by means of letters he has been traced from place to place, and about two months ago he left Oklahoma for San Francisco, where his capture was effected. —Bonne Terre Star.

Sheriff Higley returned from Jefferson City Sunday, as his application for requisition papers was not in due form, with the proper blanks upon which to make application. In making out the first papers Prose acting Attorney Hensley had no blank forms, and as he could not find a form book in town followed out the provisions of the statutes as far as he could, but it appears that they would not pass muster. On Monday he made out the application on the proper blank, forwarded it to Jefferson City, and the duly authenticated papers of requisition will probably arrive to-day (Wednesday), when Sheriff Higley will immediately leave with them for California.

The doctors of Poplar Bluff are already making arrangements to entertain the Southeast Medical Association this fall.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

The stockholders of the Farmington Times Printing Company met at their office last Thursday and organized with a capital stock of $4,000, four fifths paid up. The names of the stockholders are: R. A. Swink, Thos. H. Stam, Theo. D. Fisher, M. R. Smith, F. M. Carter, Jos. C. Williams, W. H. Young, Merrill Pipkin, E. E. Swink, James W. Doss, George J. Cole, Philip S. Cole, Luther K. Peers, Robt. Fetley and B. L. Morris. The following named eleven directors were elected: Theo. D. Fisher, Thos. H. Stam, M. R. Smith, E. E. Swink, Merrill Pipkin, Philip S. Cole, W. H. Young, F. M. Carter, B. L. Morris, Jos. C. Williams and R. A. Swink.

And this is in no way inconsistent with the Democratic claim of Missouri's magnificent State school fund, the largest of any State in the Union. Our State school and seminary funds are simply invested in non-negotiable obligations of the State, and no one can successfully deny that they are just as safe and secure in that shape as they would be if invested in United States bonds or any other kind of securities.

The Farmington Times Printing Co.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife has been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, which I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites, skin eruptions. It does the work." 25¢, 50¢ and $1.00 bottle at City Drug Store.

Dr. Alonso Tubbs of Osage County has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Ninth Congressional District. While a member of the Legislature, Dr. Tubbs voted for the bill authorizing the issue of certificates of indebtedness, and therefore aided in flooding the school fund. —Columbus Statesman.

Watch for a Child.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner to malaria. A disposition to yawns and all are tired out feeling comes on before a chill. Herbine, by its prompt stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germs out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 40¢ at City Drug Store.

Lightning Causes Mine Explosion.

From the Ironade Gazette, Aug. 22.

Mondays afternoon during the severe electrical storm which visited this section of country, lightning struck near the shaft of the Ironade Lead Co., and in some way caused an explosion of powder in a drill hole underground, by which six men were injured, three of them seriously.

The men who are injured are, Chas. Parkins, hurt in shoulder, quite seriously; Noah Skiles, right side of face badly lacerated and right side of body bruised and leg and foot cut; Steve Conaway, back and left shoulder and hip joint severely; Thornton Jarvis slightly injured on shoulders and arms; J. R. Province, shoulder bruised and leg cut slightly; McDonald, shocked and arm hurt slightly. The three first named were to walk home while the other three had to be taken home in rigs.

THE HILLWOOD ROAD.

Beginning at the forks of the St. Louis and Hillwood road, at the north end of the hill, running southwardly along the main line of said St. Louis road a distance of one-fourth of a mile.

THE JACKSON ROAD.

Beginning at the forks of the St. Louis and Jackson road, at the south end of the hill, running southwardly along the main line of said Jackson road a distance of one-half of a mile.

THE JACKSON ROAD.

Beginning at the east end of Wolf Creek Road, running southwardly along the main line of said Jackson road a distance of one-half of a mile to the junction of the Jackson road, or to the extent of the appropriation.

THE JACKSON AND DE LASSES ROAD.

Beginning at the center of said road at the southeast corner of J. R. Graham's land and field, thence running southwardly along the main line of said Farmington road to the junction of said Jackson road, or to the extent of the appropriation.

THE JACKSON AND DE LASSES ROAD.

Beginning at the corporation line of Farmington, thence running westwardly along the main line of said road to the junction of the Jackson road, or to the extent of the appropriation.

THE POTOSI ROAD.

Beginning at the south end of present rock road, south of wagon bridge over Missouri River, running westwardly and thence running in a southerly direction along the main line of said Farmington road to the junction of said road to the extent of the appropriation.

THE JACKSON ROAD.

Beginning at the east end of Wolf Creek Road, running southwardly along the main line of said Jackson road a distance of one-half of a mile to the junction of the Jackson road, or to the extent of the appropriation.

THE JACKSON ROAD.